The Days Activity

Meet at the Best Western Plus Inn & Suites in Ticonderoga at 10:00 am for Coffee, Reception and Welcome

11:00 am, a short business meeting and presentation by

Joseph W. Dooley

President General of the National Society Sons of the American Revolution

Lunch at Noon

Adjourn to Fort Ticonderoga

Approach Fort Ticonderoga, and enter through the same door that Ethan Allen and Benedict Arnold entered on a morning in May 1775 when they seized the Fort and captured the British.

See the Plaques and Monuments that the SAR and others have placed there.

Accompany 1st New York Continental Chapter Compatriot William Ahearn, a collector of antique armament, on a special talk and tour through the museum at the Fort.

See a Re-enactment of Col. John Brown's raid of September 1777, the event will go rain or shine.

In general, enjoy the beautiful fall weather and dramatic vistas from the ramparts of the Fort, and, do not forget to visit Fort Defiance and Crown Point.

For the night of Friday 13, 2013, overnight accommodations may be made at the Best Western Plus Inn & Suites, 260 Burgoyne Road, Ticonderoga, NY for $109.99 plus tax. (call Allison or her assistant at 518-585-2378) For a more inexpensive alternative try the Super 8 Ticonderoga, at 1144 Wicker Street, Ticonderoga, NY (518) 585-2617
